I am an experienced graphic designer looking to further my career in design and art direction. I have worked professionally across a range of creative disciplines and my background in graphic design provides me with an acute attention to detail and composition skills. These combined with my personal practice of image making, photography and set-design means I am versatile and unrestricted as a designer. The strength of my work has always been in the originality of my ideas and having a good eye and wide skill set to realise these.

EXPERIENCE

Omio, Berlin

Oct 2018 – Ongoing

- Middleweight Designer - Responsible for developing the art direction for campaigns. Working with copywriters I create concepts for new campaigns, ideating art direction approaches and creating the initial graphic assets and campaign stylings which I then brief junior designers on for the full execution of assets.
- Recently art directed the photography and behind the scenes video assets for an upcoming campaign. I was on set in Bulgaria for the campaign shoot to direct the photographer and videographer.
- Worked on Omio's presence at ITB 2020, providing the key concepts and overseeing the design of the booth and all graphics, from SoMe posts to printed ephemera for the stand and gifts for partners.
- As well as briefing juniors on tasks I use internal briefs such as event posters and communications as opportunities for feedback sessions and mentoring graphic design as a practice.
- Worked integrally on Omio's first product marketing campaigns for Italy and Spain, organizing and designing digital assets across all channels including billboard advertising.
- Completed promotional projects for Omio's rebrand, including a car wrap for a radio partnership and the composition of a 40ft wall-art.
- Further responsibilities include new concepts and creative content for, PR, ASO, PPM and SoMe. I also often work with the video/animation team with art direction and design elements.
